

Jake Gold

My name is Jake Gold, and I am a sophomore studying advertising, with a minor in psychology. I am a member of Alpha Epsilon Pi fraternity. As VP of Membership Development, one of my key goals is to establish a stronger connection between alumni, and current chapter members. Along with that, I also plan on hosting an alumni networking event for chapter members to learn more about the professional world, and create connections with established members in the work force.